Business: This demands of the 21st century pile up as we continually juggle work, family and personal commitments. Time Is Money Executive Concierge Inc. caters to companies, employees, traveling professional, over-scheduled families/parents and small business owners. By taking care of the time consuming “to do” lists, clients can rebalance, relax and create wellness in their life.

The implementation of employee concierge programs by Fortune 500 organizations and two of Canada’s “50 Best Companies to Work For” illustrates a growing demand for progressive corporate solutions.

Organizations that have implemented on-site programs have observed direct returns on investments, including decreased absenteeism, increased productivity and enhanced motivation.

We are built on the philosophy of making life less complicated, finding a balance between business and personal commitments and ultimately making time for things that matter. What’s Your Time Worth?
