Don't Forget! It's all about Planning!

We just got back from one of the gift shows, and we have some AMAZING ideas, especially for "unique" and show stopping Corporate gifts, Stampede baskets, Wedding decorating and Xmas presents.
 (YES, Xmas already!)

Don't Forget
 Mothers Day &
 Fathers Day
 are coming up!

Like an expensive watch, a pen can say a great deal about its' owners' style, taste and status. Owning the perfect pen becomes a personal journey to find the "one" that enhances your writing flair.

For the decided budget, buyers are introduced to a world of originality, quality & exclusivity. There is pride of ownership with people who invest in their pens. More Canadians are spending $300 plus on a fine pen. Furthermore, many companies and executives are now giving lavish pens to signify the completion of business deals.

Mont Blanc is the Rolex of writing ware. Their signature Meisterstück was developed in 1924 and is considered their "entry level pen" ($320). To celebrate their 100th Anniversary, Mont Blanc launched their special edition diamond encrusted pen ($215,000) which features 1277 white diamonds and 123 blue diamonds in a pattern resembling the Montblanc mountain range.

In 1999 Caran d'Ache created La Modernista
 Diamonds in homage to architect Antoni Gaudí. Made of solid silver components the pen has an 18-carat gold nib and is covered with 5072 diamonds totalling 20 carats and 96 half-cut rubies. It was listed in the Guinness World Records in 2001 as the worlds most expensive pen, selling for $265,000 USD.

Looking for something of fine quality but not exceeding your budget?
 For the man; try the Porsche TecFlex Pen and Car Set ($250 CAD).
 And for the lady; an elegant and eye catching ACME pen ($100 CAD).

Like driving a Ferrari; pen aficionados remark that once you use a high quality "writing instrument", you will never go back to the mundane and everyday BIC.
